Hi, my name is Kiri Barron and I have been a resident of Tom Price for 4 years.

I currently work for RTIO, operate a small local business and on the board of Mountain View Sporting Club and Tom Price Drive-In.

I'm passionate about improving local infrastructure, supporting youth programs and ensuring transparent decision-making.

As a parent, volunteer and active community member, I want to support and advocate for practical solutions that reflect our community's voice. I'm committed to listening, acting and delivering results that matter to the people of Tom Price and Ashburton region.
