Introduction

In accordance with section 5.104 of the Local Government Act 1995 (Act) every Western Australian local government is to adopt a code of conduct to be observed by council members, committee members and local government election candidates (candidates).

A local government's code of conduct is to reflect the model code of conduct prescribed by section 5.103(1) of the Act, which includes:

- general principles to guide behaviour
- requirements relating to behaviour
- provisions specified to be rules of conduct.

This Code of Conduct for Council Members, Committee Members and Candidates (Code) has been adopted for this purpose and ensures the roles and responsibilities of elected members (being the Shire President and Councillors), Committee Members and Candidates are understood and respected.

Applying the principles of the Code supports professional relationships being established and maintained in the interests of providing good governance, overall integrity and effective government for the Shire of Ashburton community.

The Code sets out principles and standards of behaviour elected members, committee members and candidates must observe and is intended to promote accountable and ethical decision-making and conduct.

There is a strong expectation that, as decision-makers for the Shire of Ashburton community, elected members and committee members will demonstrate a firm commitment to working together effectively, maintaining integrity, and ensuring that all decisions are transparent, ethical, and in the best interests of the community. All elected and committee members agree to show leadership by modelling the standards set out in this Code.

The Act and other legislation contain other conduct matters that affect council members, committee members and candidates, and this Code does not override or affect those legislative provisions or requirements.

Statutory Framework

Local Government Act 1995 (the Act)

Section 5.104 – Adoption of model code of conduct

* Absolute majority required.

(2) Within 3 months after the day on which regulations amending the model code come into operation, the local government must amend* the adopted code of conduct to incorporate the amendments made to the model code.

* Absolute majority required.

(3) A local government may include in the adopted code of conduct requirements in addition to the requirements referred to in section 5.103(2)(b), but any additional requirements:

(a) Can only be expressed to apply to council members or committee members.

(b) Are of no effect to the extent that they are inconsistent with the model code.

(4) A local government cannot include in the adopted code of conduct provisions in addition to the principles referred to in section 5.103(2)(a) or the rules of conduct.

(5) The model code is taken to be a local government's adopted code of conduct until the local government adopts a code of conduct.

(6) An alleged breach of a local government's adopted code of conduct by a candidate cannot be dealt with under this Division or the adopted code of conduct unless the candidate has been elected as a council member.
