Summary

The draft budget for the year ended 30 June 2011 was workshopped by Council on 4 August 2010 at the Mecure Hotel in Perth.

The statutory form of the budget has now been finalised, taking into account Council's input at the workshop. The document is now submitted to Council for formal adoption.

The draft statutory budget has been circulated under separate cover.

At the 18 August 2010 Ordinary Meeting of Council the 2010/11 Budget was not adopted by absolute majority and is now represented to Council for adoption.

Background

The draft budget for the year ending 30 June 2011 was workshopped by Council on 4 August 2010 at the Mecure Hotel in Perth (in conjunction with a Special Meeting of Council).

The statutory form of the budget has now been finalised, taking into account Council's input at the workshop. The budget document is now submitted to Council for formal adoption.

At the 18 August 2010 Ordinary Meeting of Council the 2010/11 Budget was not adopted by absolute majority and is now represented to Council for adoption.

Comment

The draft budget has now been finalised in the required, statutory form.

Included in the Budget Resulting from the Budget Workshop are:

1. Inclusion of Solar Light and Stainless Steel Table at Beadon Point.
2. Inclusion of repairs to the Tennis Courts in Paraburdoo (included in scope of Paraburdoo Town Centre Revitalisation Program)

Also in the course of completing this process the programming for the Tom Price Sporting Precinct Project was reviewed and the project was split over two financial years, $ 4,716,300 in 2010/2011 and $1,057,000 in 2011/2012. As discussed at the Workshop significant funding of approximately $692,000 is still required for this project.

The final draft statutory Budget for the 2010/11 Financial Year has previously been distributed to Councillors
